

Murder on the Nile — Synopsis

Set aboard a luxury river steamer cruising the Nile, Murder on the Nile is a classic Agatha Christie mystery filled with romance, jealousy, and deadly secrets.

When wealthy socialite Kay Ridgeway marries the charming Simon Mostyn, their honeymoon quickly becomes strained by the presence of Simon's former fiancée, Jacqueline de Severac — a woman consumed by heartbreak and obsession. As tensions rise among the eclectic group of passengers, long-buried resentments and hidden motives surface.

The idyllic journey takes a dark turn when a shocking murder occurs, leaving everyone aboard a suspect. With no escape and nowhere to hide, the truth must be uncovered before the killer strikes again.

Rich in intrigue, sharp dialogue, and psychological tension, Murder on the Nile explores love, betrayal, and revenge, delivering a gripping whodunit that keeps audiences guessing until the final revelation.
